

You will find below some useful information about the Eiffel Excellence scholarship.

First of all thanks for reading the Eiffel Programme guide

Fields of study are the following ones:

- Economics and Management
- Engineering Sciences (Master level) / Sciences in a broader sense (PhD level)
- Law
- Political Sciences

The programme is dedicated to foreign students only with no restriction on the nationality. The French higher education establishments preselect the candidates and will proceed to the online application on Campus France website.

1st step:

- You may contact the International Relation departments of the school/university through their website, by email or phone and get closer to the school / university to know the deadline for submission.
- You may contact the French embassy or Campus France office located in your country

You have to choose by yourself the French establishment according to your project of study.

There are no lists of establishments, any French school or university of higher education can apply.

2nd step:

- The university/school has decided to support your application to Eiffel scholarship
- They will send you the application form which will be conjointly filled out
- Finally, they will make the online application

Applications made directly by students or submitted by foreign educational Establishments will not be eligible.
