

COMMUNIQUÉ CAMPUS FRANCE

PARIS, JUNE 1, 2023

CAMPUS FRANCE PRESENTS A DELEGATION OF 46 FRENCH INSTITUTIONS AT 2023 GLOBAL NAFSA CONFERENCE 2023

France is participating in the 2023 edition of the Global NAFSA Conference in Washington DC, from May 30th to June 2nd. For the conference's 75th anniversary, the France Pavilion brings together 46 higher education institutions and over a hundred of their representatives.

Organized in Washington DC, a major economic metropolis as well as the nation's political capital, the 2023 NAFSA conference provides an opportunity for higher education institutions from around the world to network and exchange ideas.

Each year, the conference welcomes over 10,000 professionals from around the world and exhibitors from over one hundred different countries.

2023 NAFSA:

"Inspiring an inclusive future"

This year, in celebration of its 75th anniversary, NAFSA invites participants to "inspire an inclusive future" and offers them a platform for dialogue, networking, and the exchange of best practices.

The Campus France Pavilion

The Campus France Pavilion, featuring the colors of the new, “Rendez-vous en France, Skills and Friends for Life” communication campaign and represented by a delegation of 46 different institutions and over a hundred of their delegates, offers a rich and diverse panorama of higher education in France.

The French delegation is composed of 15 universities, 19 business schools, 7 engineering schools, and 5 specialized schools.

15 universities & schools

- Aix-Marseille Université
- CY Cergy Paris Université
- ESPOL European School of Political and social Sciences
- Sciences Po Aix
- Sciences Po Lyon
- Sciences Po Paris
- Université d'Angers
- UCLy | Université catholique de Lyon
- Université de Lyon
- Université Lumière Lyon 2
- Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3
- Université de Montpellier
- Université Paris Cité
- Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne
- Université Paris Dauphine-PSL

19 business schools

- Audencia Business School
- Burgundy School of Business
- EDC Paris Business School
- EDHEC Business School
- EM Normandie Business School
- ESCE International Business School

5 specialized schools

- CAVILAM
- EICAR, the International Film & TV School Paris
- FERRANDI Paris
- The French Civilization Course at the Sorbonne
- The Fulbright France Franco-American commission

- ESSCA School of Management
- EXCELIA
- Grenoble Ecole de Management
- HEC PARIS
- ICD Business School
- ICN Business School
- IÉSEG School of Management
- INSEEC
- Institut Mines-Télécom Business School
- Rennes School of Business
- SKEMA
- TBS Education
- Paris School of Business

7 engineering schools

- Ecole Supérieure des Agricultures – ESA
- Institut Mines-Télécom
- EURECOM
- IMT Mines Albi
- IMT Nord Europe
- IMT Mines Alès
- INSA Lyon | Institut National des Sciences Appliquées

The conference, as a body of global academic “governance”, is an opportunity to:

- Establish new contacts with global universities and partners from around the world.
- Participate in 3 days of workshops and conferences to assess the state of the international education market, including concrete topics such as visas, immigration, country-specific workshops, and accreditations, as well as broader issues.

This edition will allow the French delegation to identify new avenues for collaboration and develop an ambitious outlook for the future of French higher education.

Signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Nuffic

Donatienne Hissard, Director General of Campus France, and her Dutch counterpart, Titia Bredée, Director General of Nuffic (Netherlands), will sign a Memorandum of Understanding on June 1st at the France Pavilion. This memorandum represents an opportunity for the two organizations to continue their partnership on European projects, while also strengthening synergies and promoting the exchange of expertise and best practices.

French Reception

To conclude the conference, Campus France and the French Embassy in the United States are inviting 250 stakeholders from French higher education and their partners to a "French Reception" at the French Ambassador's Residence in Washington DC on June 1st at 7 p.m.

Each year, Campus France coordinates more than 50 events related to the promotion of higher education worldwide, including APAIE (Asia), EAIE (Europe), EURIE (Eurasia), and FAUBAI (Brazil).

During these events, the organization brings together numerous higher education institutions under a single banner, the France brand.

Link to Campus France's 2023 events calendar

About Campus France:

Campus France is an agency that promotes French higher education as an attractive option for international students. Its mission also includes managing scholarships from both French and foreign governments, providing support to students and researchers abroad, supervising the France Alumni network, and analyzing student mobility in France and around the world.

In France, the agency coordinates the Campus France Forum (372 establishments). Globally, 275 Campus France spaces are overseen by French embassies in 134 countries.

Contact Campus France Paris

Nabil M'SILTI

Deputy Director of Communications
Tel: 01 40 40 58 54 – 06 35 25 62 34
nabil.msilti@campusfrance.org

Contact Campus France USA

Vincent Michelot

Director of Campus France USA et University Cooperation Secretary
(French Embassy in Washington)
vincent.michelot@diplomatie.gouv.fr

Natalie Cox

Deputy Director of Campus France USA
natalie.cox@frenchculture.org